The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 2,4,10,11,13-16,18 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Faska in view of Choi and Tsai, of record.

The previous rejection still applies. These claims do not have priority back to the parent because they contain the new matter of this CIP application. Therefore Faska is prior art against these claims. The new recitation in claim 11 does not make the claim allowable because Faska shows the new recitation feature.

Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Faska with Choi and Tsai and further in view of Mitra, of record.

The previous rejection with the above comments applies.

The terminal disclaimer filed on 1/9/07 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of 6,875,975 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Claims 1,3,5-9,17 and 19 are allowable over the art of record.

Applicant's arguments filed 1/9/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. As stated above, the new limitations in claim 11 do not distinguish the claim over the applied art.

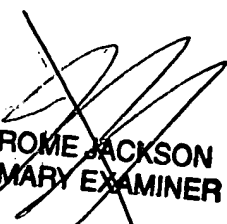

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 2815

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
